ABOUT THE Q-CHAT

Geaux Queen began as a t-shirt brand inspiring Women of Color to remind them that they were "The Special Privilege, The Ultimate Prize and The Full Package."

Having overcome domestic violence, abuse, depression, PTSD, familial isolation and low self-esteem, our creator Shronda Armstrong wanted to find a deeper way to showcase the message of self-love displayed on the t-shirts. Having the mantra of "Geaux Love Ya Self!", the inception of "The Q-Chat Podcast" came to be. The ultimate self-love conversation, "The Q-Chat Podcast" was created to highlight Women of Color, as well as Kings, to not only stray away from detrimental stereotypes, but to also have intelligent conversations to uplift, motivate, and inspire! Launching soon, Reign TV will stream The Q-Chat & more positive platforms created by phenomenal women of color!
